Dear Dharma Friends:

Thank you for watching the Seven Point Mind Training Class. It's been great working with you, and sharing this wonderful topic with you.

At the end of the film, they play the credits - so I'd like to take a minute to thank all the wonderful people who have helped make the Seven-Point Mind Training classes go so well at KTC Columbus:

1. Wes and Betsy Dain and John Mader and countless others at the Piedmont KTC. John asked for the teachings, and Wes and company made them happen. They put up the web stream links and handouts on the Piedmont KTC website, and helped connect people to the teachings. Thanks, guys!

2. Joseph Francik. Our Columbus KTC video wizard has given countless hours to video record and create master recordings of the entire series. Joseph, you are our hero!

3. Julane Goodrich. Columbus KTC's Shrine Keeper has arrived early, stayed late, and opened and closed the shrine, making our environment sacred and beautiful. She's set up tables and seats, and had many others assisting her. Thanks, Julane and company!

4. Justin Fitch. Columbus KTC volunteer Justin made copies of handouts for the classes. Many thanks, Justin!

Now, if you'd like to express your thanks to the dharma centers for making these teachings possible, you can accumulate merit by making donations to the centers. Here's how you can do this:

If you'd like to make a donation to the Piedmont KTC, here's the weblink:

It takes financial energy to put the teachings together and have the resources to make them happen. Please consider donating to the centers to thank them for creating the Seven-Point Mind Training series!

And thanks to all of YOU for being part of the class - your sincerity in wanting to learn dharma for the benefit of beings is why we do what we do. May all beings benefit from your practice of the dharma!

Sincerely yours in dharma,
Lama Kathy

PS: It feels strange to add this, but .... If you'd like to make a donation to Lama Kathy's Medical Care and Retreat Fund, here's the link:
