

Piedmont Karma Thegsum Choling

a center for the study and practice of Tibetan Buddhism

Lama Karma Jinpa

January 13-14, 2018

A weekend teaching at the Piedmont KTC center in Carrboro:

Training the Mind, Part 2

Lama Jinpa will continue the discussion and practice of the Mayahana path of emptiness and compassion, using the classic text “The Great Path of Awakening” by Jamgon Kongtrul. We will focus on the slogans of Relative Bodhicitta and practice calm-abiding and Tonglen meditation. This is the second in a series of teachings, and all are welcome to join us for the whole weekend or just part, even if they did not attend previous weekends. There will also be the opportunity for individual interviews with Lama Jinpa.

January 13-14, 2018, Saturday, 10 am to noon, 2 pm to 4 pm; Sunday, 10 am to noon
Piedmont KTC, W. Weaver St (in town of Carrboro). Suggested donation of $20/session.
Pre-registration is recommended— Email: piedmont.ktc.info@gmail.com or Phone 919-636-9108

About Lama Karma Jinpa: Lama Karma Jinpa was born in Germany in 1978. He became a student of Khenpo Karthar Rinpoche in 1999. In 2012 he completed the traditional three-year retreat at Karme Ling Retreat Center under the direction of Khenpo Karthar Rinpoche. Currently, he lives and works in Washington, D.C., serves as the center lama for the Greenville KTC and travels regularly to other KTCs in the Carolinas. Lama Jinpa has also helped at programs at E-Vam Buddhist Institute, the Potomac MD Ocean of Merit group, and has given informal teachings in the D.C. area.

FOR MORE INFORMATION: Visit www.piedmontktc.org, or email piedmont.ktc.info@gmail.com, or call 919.636.9108.